

Midtown Bank & Trust Company to Implement iLumen's Financial Monitoring and Benchmarking Service

New service to help serve small business customers

ATLANTA, GA, August 2, 2005

Midtown Bank & Trust Company, located in Atlanta, Georgia, today announced that they will implement iLumen's financial monitoring and benchmarking service as an enhancement to their customer service focus.

"iLumen's services allow our relationship managers to better understand and anticipate our business customers' needs" said Stan Kryder, Chief Executive Officer of Midtown Bank & Trust. "With iLumen services, our small business customers can submit their financial information electronically to the bank, view trending information on their respective business and access comparative industry trending information through the iLumen Financial Network."

"Midtown Bank is dedicated to providing superior service to businesses in the Metropolitan Atlanta area", said Robert H. Woosley, Co-founder and Chief Executive Officer of iLumen. "By implementing iLumen's service, Midtown Bank will be able to react to changing business trends for their customers and will be in a position to better serve their unique needs."

"Our customers expect us to understand their business, and fulfilling that expectation is a key component of Midtown's success" said Kryder. "iLumen's service will provide us with a competitive advantage in serving our broad small and mid-size customer base."
