

Stewart, Archibald & Barney, LLP Implements iLumen's Client Financial Monitoring and Benchmarking Service

Atlanta, GA, June 2, 2006

Stewart, Archibald & Barney, LLP, a leading CPA firm in Las Vegas, Nevada, and iLumen, Inc. jointly announced today that Stewart, Archibald & Barney will implement iLumen's client financial monitoring and benchmarking service. Implementing iLumen's service will further position Stewart, Archibald & Barney as a firm focused on delivering added value to help their accounting, auditing and consulting business clients reach their long-term goals.

"iLumen's technology enables our clients to upload their financial data into a standard platform that quickly and easily puts everyone on the same financial page," said Leland Pace, Consultant, Partner with Stewart, Archibald & Barney. "Company and Benchmarking dashboards allow both our CPAs and their clients to stay focused on mutual big picture objectives and compare their financial performance to industry peers."

"Stewart, Archibald & Barney is a technology-savvy firm with a long-standing commitment to providing their clients with exceptional service and forward-thinking advice and is a natural fit for the iLumen Financial Information Network," said Robert H. Woosley, Co-founder and Chief Executive Officer of iLumen. "By implementing iLumen's client financial monitoring and benchmarking service, Stewart, Archibald & Barney CPAs will streamline their audit, tax and consulting work while enhancing client communications."

"The more we know about the industries our clients are in the better we can advise them based on their unique financial strengths and weaknesses" said Pace. "iLumen's Industry Benchmarking will help us identify industry trends and best practices throughout our client base."
